Parshat Metzora-"Leper" Reaching Out For Yeshua

A Word from the Torah...

This week's parsha has a scripture in it that brings us to one of our most famous stories about Yeshua's ministry here on earth. This parsha talks about the rules for staying away from others if you're sick with a bleeding problem. It starts by saying... CHECK OUT THE

Since Torah teaches about how the "life is in the blood," then having a bleeding problem is pretty serious.

A woman with a bleeding problem was an outcast. She had to stay out of the camp and couldn't ever go to the temple to pray.

"If a woman has a discharge of blood many days... then throughout the time she is having an unclean discharge she will be as when she is in niddah - she is unclean"
Leviticus 15:25 CJB

She wasn't allowed to go to the temple. If anyone touched anything she even sat on, they would be unclean, too! She couldn't stop the bleeding problem by herself.

What was she going to do?

Hmmm, now think about this...

How could she bring her sacrifices to the temple at the appointed feasts? Do you think she felt separated from God because she couldn't worship like everybody else?

How could she get close to Him when she was unclean?
Do you think she wondered if God really did love her after all?

A Word from Yeshua...

This exact thing happened to a woman back in Yeshua's day. You may have heard her story. She's called, "the woman with the issue of blood." In Luke chapter 8, you can read it for yourself.

When she saw Yeshua walking with a crowd around Him, she was so eager for His help that she pushed her way through the crowd and managed to just touch the fringes of His tsi tsit!

Can you imagine how much "chutspa" that took? She wasn't allowed to do that! She was unclean remember?

Now, the amazing thing is that, even though Yeshua didn't see her do it... He immediately turned around and shouted for her to reveal herself! CHECK OUT THE

She needed this one thing more than anything. She needed Him and she somehow knew that if she could just push through the crowd, then surely... HE WOULD HELP HER.
